

List of Infection Prevention and Control Equipment/Supplies Needed for Shelters

Other supplies and equipment will be required for shelter functioning. The items included on this list are specific to infection prevention and control and should be supplemental to traditional supplies needed to run a shelter.

	Item
	Plastic bags or containers for waste disposal with twist ties
	Sharps containers
	Personal Protective Equipment (PPE):
	Masks
	Clothes covering, plastic apron
	Gloves (non-sterile procedure gloves)
	Eye protection (goggles or face shields)
	Hand hygiene products:
	Alcohol Based Hand Rubs (ABHR) and dispensing system *Check expiration dates
	Soap (non-antimicrobial or anti-microbial)
	Paper towels
	Disinfectants: EPA-registered chemical germicide
	Quaternary ammonia
	Non-scented household bleach (sodium hypochlorite)
	Mixing containers, measuring utensils, preparation log, written directions & procedure
	Body Fluid Management Supplies:
	Absorbent pads (blue pads) for incontinent individuals
	Diapers
	Impermeable sheets or pads for cots/sleeping area
	Facial tissues
	Environmental Controls:
	Fans
	Plastic, drywall, or plywood for barrier creation
	Food Safety:
	Thermometer for monitoring refrigerator/freezer and food temperature
	First Aid kit
	-Thermometers
	Forms:
	Syndromic Surveillance Assessment/ Triage Form
	Signage:
	Respiratory Etiquette
	Hand Hygiene
	Cot or Sleeping Area Configuration
	Putting on and Taking Off Personal Protective Equipment