Case No.: 10-513079

Another Woman Assaulted by Hispanic Man on Bike

Summary of Event

On Thursday morning, a Hispanic male grabbed a 25-year-old Beaverton woman on the buttock near the Nike World Campus. Washington County Deputies believe this is the same suspect who was involved in previous attacks in the same area.

Full Details

On Thursday, August 19, 2010, at 10:00 a.m., a woman was walking to work on NW Pioneer Road which is about 1 mile from the Nike World Campus. While she was walking, she noticed a bike pull up next to her and a man grabbed her on the buttock. She reported that his hand remained on her buttock for approximately 10 seconds before he rode away.

The victim described the suspect as being a Hispanic male adult with medium-colored skin. He appeared to be about 6 feet tall with a medium build, weighing about 175 pounds. He had unshaved stubble with no mustache or goatee. He was wearing a light blue t-shirt, dark colored pants (possibly blue jeans). His hair was black, about two inches in length, and had gel in it. She said he had a silver-hooped earring in his left ear and did not see the right side of the man's face. The bike looked like a darker colored mountain bike.

As with the previous attacks, the suspect was both casual in his approach and as he rode away. Washington County Deputies and Beaverton Police responded to the area and made contact with a couple of possible suspects, but the victim told Deputies they were not the attacker.

The Washington County Sheriff's Office believes the suspect involved in previous attacks in this area is also responsible for this incident. Deputies have followed up on several tips provided by the public in an effort to arrest the suspect including a check of all registered sex offenders in the area. The public is encouraged to call in any tips, no matter how insignificant they feel they might be. Additionally, the public, especially women, should be aware of their surroundings, as there is a high likelihood that the suspect will attack again.

Sheriff's investigators are asking the public to call non-emergency dispatch (503) 629-0111 with any tips regarding this case.
