Deputies Catch Car Break-In Thieves

Summary of Event

Today, Washington County Sheriff's Deputies arrested two men after they were caught breaking into cars and attempted to burglarize a home. They were charged with a number of crimes.

Full Details

On January 14, 2012, at 2:56 am, Washington County Sheriff's Deputies were called to the 16100 block of SW Vincent Street in the community of Aloha. Sheriff's Deputies received information there was someone breaking into cars and possibly a house.

Multiple deputies responded to the scene and surrounded the area in an effort to catch the people responsible for the crimes. Shortly after arriving in the area, Sheriff's Deputies found two men jumping over fences and running through yards and in the neighborhood.

Sheriff's Deputies captured 18-year-old Cyral Callender and 21-year-old Mikel Bonnet. Both men live in Aloha close to the area of their arrest. Investigators discovered there were several vehicles that were entered and ransacked with items stolen. All of the victim vehicles were apparently left unlocked. A GPS, camera, and small tools were found on the two men and it is believed these items were from the entered vehicles.

Investigators also found there was a bedroom window broken at a house close by. A concerned citizen saw two men matching Mr. Callender's and Mr. Bonnet's description break the glass before ransacking another vehicle. Sheriff's Deputies located yard power equipment that was stolen out of a tool shed which was apparently dropped when the men were fleeing on foot. There was several hundreds of dollars in damages to the house and several hundreds of dollars in stolen property recovered.
