Note: County will review the application and, in its sole discretion, determine if the proposed location is an acceptable candidate for the Adopt-A-Road/Landscape program. Considerations in the County's review include sight distance, vehicle speeds, traffic volumes, shoulder width, and other safety considerations. County may revise the proposed limits or reject the road segment all together. Roads with significant segments of maintained or developed shoulders may not be good candidates for the Adopt-A-Road/Landscape Program.

The Department may furnish and erect two acknowledgment signs, one at each end of the adopted roadway section, with the group's name displayed, if desired. If the Department determines that the signs would create an unsafe condition or the segment being adopted is less than one mile, the Department may choose not to erect the signs.
