Oregon's planning program was signed into law in 1973 through Senate Bill 100. The statewide goals begin with Goal 1- Citizen Involvement:

To develop a citizen involvement program that insures the opportunity for citizens to be involved in all phases of the planning process. (OAR-660-015-0000(1).

The CCI serves as the officially recognized citizen participation resource committee committed to the success of citizen participation in government decision-making processes. The CCI will assist the County in complying with Goal 1.

CCI core beliefs:

Vision — Individuals and their Washington County communities will be meaningfully engaged in collaborative, dynamic processes of open and responsive government.

The Mission of Citizen Participation Organizations in Washington County is to encourage and empower public involvement.

Values — Civility, Community, Compassion, Diversity, Education, Equity, Improvement, Inclusiveness, Information, Learning, Process, Respect, Transparency
