COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION ORGANIZATION 12C
WASHINGTON COUNTY

COMMUNITY MEETING

*Open to the public.
Bring a friend!*

6:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 11, 2017

We're the Connection for Safety, Livability!

- Hear what Washington County learned from asking how our residents prepare for emergency
- Cornelius residential development in the works

AGENDA

6:30 p.m. Welcome, Introductions

Public Safety / Cornelius Police (with brief Q&A)

Washington County needs, attitudes and readiness for emergency: Assessment and recommendations

Guest speaker Kathleen Rees, Washington County Public Health, will present a summary of the assessment and discuss priority findings.

For a one-page priority findings sheet:

Discussion of new residential projects, pre-application

Approximately 25 new homes are proposed on a site from 338th to 341st avenues north of TV Highway. The developer's open house was held March 21, attended by a CPO member.

For the property on 341st where a 60-home project is proposed, the neighborhood meeting is to be 6:00 tonight (April 11) at Free Orchards Elementary School's Cafeteria. (Our CPO meeting will take place in the Library starting at 6:30 p.m.)

This CPO meeting's purpose is for community information about pre-application proposals, feedback, and education about the public process and decision-making. CPO volunteers provide a neutral, welcoming space where people can meet.

Community Announcements and Public Comments
