

Child Safety Seat Violations

The safety of children traveling in motor vehicles is our primary goal when enforcing the proper use of safety seats. Please follow the steps listed below to correct the violation.

1. Contact the Child Safety Seat Resource Center at www.actsoregon.org or call (877) 793-2608.
2. Find a listed child seat clinic that is scheduled at least one week prior to your court date.
3. Attend the child car seat clinic. Bring the same vehicle, child seat and child with you to the car seat clinic.
4. Hand the technician this form and your copy of the citation. The technician will complete the appropriate section of the form in this brochure.
5. Follow the directions inside this flier under How to Get Your Citation and Fine Dismissed.

How to Get Your Citation and Fine Dismissed

The good news is that you have a second chance to comply with the law through the Vehicle Compliance Program.

Follow these steps exactly as stated before your court date:

1. Repair or correct the Violation. For child safety seat violations, refer to the back of this brochure.
2. Complete the Defendant's section of the form attached.
3. Bring the vehicle to the Washington County Sheriff's Office East Precinct for a vehicle inspection. Inspections are ONLY conducted on Mondays (except holidays) between 9 a.m. and 12 p.m. If the violation has been corrected, a representative of the Washington County Sheriff's Office will complete the appropriate section of the form.
4. Take the completed form, along with your citations and a $25 administrative fee to the Justice Court.
5. The court will dismiss the citation and fine, and cancel your court appearance.

Want to Save Time?

Immediately after your equipment inspection at the Sheriff's Office, you can deliver the required forms and the $25 fee to the Justice Court drop box on the second floor of the same building. If you do this in advance, Justice Court will cancel your court appearance and save you an additional trip. To confirm, you may call (503) 846-6600.
