TOPIC: ESTATE PLANNING: (includes wills, advance directives, powers of attorney, and more)

Oregon does not have any court-sanctioned, official fill-in-the-blank estate planning forms in print or that can be downloaded, free or otherwise. Oregon legal forms are available from other sources, but you must make sure they comply with current Oregon laws:

- Check with your county Circuit Court's Probate Department.
- The Oregon State Bar \(OSB\) website has information on wills, trusts, estate law, and much more.
- You may find useful information at the State of Oregon website on Probate Administration.

1) BOOKS/PAMPHLETS/BROCHURES (TIP: Remember, not everything is online!)

- Oregon legal practice manuals on state law and practice are available for reference at your county law libraries. For example, Administering Oregon Estates, Elder Law, Guardianships, Conservatorships and Transfers to Minors, U.S. Banks' Will and Trust Forms, Wills & Estate Planning: Oregon Handbook, and A Will is Not Enough in Oregon. Ask at your county or state law library for titles.
- Locate your local county law library: Oregon Council of County Law Libraries directory \(OCCLL\).
- Ask about estate planning self-help books at your public library and local bookstores. Nolo Press publishes a number of relevant titles including: Estate Planning Basics, Make Your Own Living Trust, Nolo's Simple Will Book, 8 Ways to Avoid Probate, and The Busy Family's Guide to Estate Planning.
- Oregon library links here and here and here.
