

WHY WE NEED PUBLIC LAW LIBRARIES

SAMPLE PUBLIC LAW LIBRARY REFERENCE QUESTIONS

(asked in-person, by telephone, or via email)

Compiled by Washington County Law Librarian, Laura Orr, B.S., J.D., M.L.S.

Updated: March 1, 2009

- Public law librarians show people how to research legal questions and to develop problem-solving strategies.
- Public law librarians do not solve their patrons' legal problems.
- Public law librarians always recommend that the law library patron consult an attorney.
- Public law librarians refer people to online and community-based legal information and legal service resources.
- Would YOU use Google™ to find "the answer" to a personal and serious legal problem?

What would these people do if they didn't have a public law library where they get expert help researching the law or finding referrals to qualified attorneys and legal aid services?

Q: My veteran's benefits were denied. How do I appeal that?
