Woman Arrested After Crashing Stolen Vehicle Into Patrol Car and Leading Deputies on a Pursuit

April 12, 2018 – A 28-year-old Sandy woman led deputies on a pursuit after crashing a stolen vehicle into a patrol car. Deputies arrested her, and later her boyfriend, for various crimes and outstanding warrants.

On April 11, 2018, at 8:00 p.m., a Washington County Sheriff's Office deputy conducting routine patrols located a stolen white 1990 Honda Civic parked in the lot of the Fred Meyer at 15995 Southwest Walker Road in Beaverton. While giving commands to a female occupant, she reversed the vehicle and crashed it into the patrol car, and then drove away with deputies in pursuit.

The pursuit ended on Southwest Murray Boulevard near Southwest Butner Road when deputies completed a pursuit intervention technique (PIT) and the vehicle struck a tree. The driver, 28-year old Danielle Hague of Sandy, was transported to a local hospital with minor injuries by Metro West Ambulance. Tualatin Valley Fire & Rescue assisted at the crash scene.

During the investigation, deputies learned that Ms. Hague had been committing retail theft with her boyfriend when deputies located her in the stolen car. Deputies searched the Fred Meyer and found the boyfriend, 35-year-old Wayde Silva Jr. of Portland, hiding in a bathroom stall.

Mr. Silva was arrested for unauthorized use of a vehicle, identity theft, criminal trespass in the second degree, and outstanding arrest warrants for abscond and unauthorized use of a vehicle.

After being discharged from the hospital, Ms. Hague was arrested for unauthorized use of a vehicle, possession of a stolen vehicle, attempted assault on a public safety officer, attempt to elude in a vehicle, attempt to elude on foot, theft in the second degree, forging a registration, and an outstanding arrest warrant for parole violation.
