UPDATE - Missing Mother and Toddler Located

July 26, 2019

The Washington County Sheriff's Office has received notification from the Portland Police Bureau that they located Nicole Murphy and her son Caiden late Thursday night. They were found in Southeast Portland not far from the Plaid Pantry (SE 122nd Ave & SE Market St) where a witness had reported seeing them on Wednesday evening. The boy was left in the care of a family member, but Nicole took off running as officers arrived.

The sheriff's office would like to thank everyone who assisted in helping find Nicole and Caiden and making sure the boy is being adequately cared for.

Sheriff's Office Looking for Information on Missing Mother and Toddler

July 24, 2019

The Washington County Sheriff's Office is working to locate Nicole Marie Murphy, 32, and her two-year-old son Caiden.

Both were last seen on Tuesday, July 23, between 6:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. at an urgent care facility on NW 185th Avenue and NW Cornell Road in Hillsboro.

Nicole Murphy is described as white, 4'11", 115 lbs., with dirty blonde hair and green eyes.

Caiden is 34 lbs. with longer, curly blonde hair and green eyes.

Nicole was most recently staying at the Mountindale Recovery Center in North Plains. There is no indication of foul play, but the family is concerned about the well-being of Nicole and her ability to care for Caiden. She has not used her cell phone since she was reported missing and has no known financial means to travel.

Anyone with information about Nicole or Caiden's whereabouts is asked to call the Washington County Sheriff's Office non-emergency line at 503-629-0111.
