Original release below:

June 17, 2014—Washington County Sheriff's Deputies are searching for a man after he allegedly beat a store clerk and took property.

On June 17, 2014 at about 2:29 a.m., Sheriff's Deputies were called to Dotty's establishment at 20571 SW TV Highway in the community of Aloha, concerning an assault and robbery. Multiple Sheriff's Deputies responded to the area to render aid to the victim and search for the suspect. Upon arrival, deputies learned there was one man that reportedly attacked the 32 year-old female clerk as she closed the establishment for the night.

Sheriff's Deputies were told the clerk went outside and was locking the front door behind her, closing for the night, when a man ran up to her and began striking her in the head with a solid object. The clerk said when she fell to the sidewalk; the man ran into the establishment and took an unspecified amount of lottery tickets and a small amount of cash.

The clerk was transported by ambulance to a local hospital with significant head injuries. Sheriff's Deputies searched the area with a K9 and handler with no success. Washington County Forensic Science Unit assisted with crime scene processing. Washington County Violent Crime Unit Detectives were contacted and are continuing the investigation.

The man was described as having dark skin, in his thirties with a medium build. He was reportedly wearing a light colored shirt with a Nike logo on the front wearing black colored warm-up pants with a white strip down the leg. He wore a dark ball cap and had a surgical mask covering his face.

Detectives are seeking the public's help regarding this case. If you have any information, please call the Washington County Sheriff's Office at (503) 846-2500.
