PRESS RELEASE

ESPD Advisory Committee Recruitment

April 5, 2016--The Sheriff's Office of Washington County is accepting applications for citizens to serve on the Enhanced Sheriff's Patrol District (ESPD) Citizens' Advisory Committee. The Committee works with the Sheriff and other officials from the Sheriff's Office to review and offer recommendations regarding the level and type of police service in ESPD. The Committee advises the Sheriff on strategic goals and direction for the law enforcement district. Future considerations of the Committee will be to review other long-range opportunities for enhanced law enforcement and community collaboration.

ESPD provides enhanced patrol response to over 210,000 residents of the urban areas outside the cities. There are 130 Sheriff's Deputies serving the citizens in the district. The Sheriff's Office has been nationally accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA) continuously since 2004.

Committee members serve a three-year term. Applicants must pass a criminal background check and must live in the district. Applications can be obtained online at www.WCSheriff-OR.com, in person at the Washington County Sheriff's Office Executive Administration Office, by phone by contacting Lori Larson at (503) 846-2694, or by e-mail at lori_larson@co.washington.or.us. The deadline to submit your application is Friday, May 20, 2016 at 5:00 p.m.

Enhanced Sheriff Patrol District (ESPD) Citizens' Advisory Committee

Application

The ESPD Citizens' Advisory Committee was established in 1988. The Enhanced Sheriff's Patrol District provides additional police services to residents living within the Urban Growth Boundary, but outside Washington County cities. These include neighborhoods in Aloha, Cedar Hills, Cedar Mill, Garden home, Metzger, Raleigh Hills, Rock Creek and communities around Cornelius, Forest Grove, Hillsboro, Tigard, and Tualatin.

The ESPD Citizens' Advisory Committee is representative of the area served and includes members from neighborhoods, businesses and citizen participation organizations. The 17-member committee meets regularly. Openings for the advisory committee are advertised in the paper, Sheriff's Office website, Facebook, as well as Citizen Participation Organization (CPO) newsletters and on the County Website.

If you live within the Urban Growth Boundary and are interested in serving on this Committee, please contact Lori Larson at 503.846.2694 or by e-mail at Lori_Larson@co.washington.or.us.

For any additional information about the Sheriff's Office or various volunteer opportunities, please call 503.846.2525 or visit is online at the following web address: <http://www.co.washington.or.us/sheriff>
