

WASHINGTON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Conserving the Peace Through Values Driven Service
Sheriff Pat Garrett

PRESS RELEASE

UPDATE: Robert Hankins was found safe in Hillsboro. He was found by an alert person who saw the information on the Sheriff's Office Twitter account. He was in good health and returned home.

The Sheriff's Office would like to thank everyone involved in the search and for the alert public's help in locating Mr. Hankins.

Original Release Below:

Deputies Search for Missing Endangered Man

August 1, 2016 – Sheriff's Deputies are searching for a man that has been reported missing and is possibly in danger due to health issues.

Today at 4:47 p.m., Sheriff's Deputies were called to a report of a man missing from the area of NW 198th Avenue and NW Baseline Road. Robert Hankins, 82, was reported missing by his wife. The last time Mr. Hankins was seen was about 2:00 p.m. today. It is very unusual for Mr. Hankins to be out of contact with his wife for this length of time.

Mr. Hankins is reported to have memory issues that could cause him confusion and make it difficult for him to communicate or find his way home. Washington County Sheriff's Deputies and Washington County Search and Rescue are enhancing the search efforts.

Robert Hankins is described as being 5'7" tall, thin, and is balding with gray hair (photo inset). He was last seen wearing blue jeans, a blue plaid shirt and black shoes.

The Washington County Sheriff's Office is requesting the public's help with this case. If anyone has any information regarding the whereabouts of Robert Hankins, please call 503-629-0111.

