Policy

Washington County is committed to providing equal access to programs, services and activities to people with disabilities. Washington County recognizes its obligation under the ADA to modify its policies and procedures when necessary to ensure that people with disabilities are afforded an equal opportunity to participate.

Requests will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis, and each request will be answered. Any cost of reasonable accommodation or modification will be borne by Washington County; and there will be no charge to the applicant or participant. Individuals may grieve alleged ADA violations as provided in the Washington County ADA Grievance Procedure.

Definition

"Reasonable accommodations/modification" is any change or adjustment to a program, service, or activity that permits a qualified applicant or participant with a disability to participate in the program, service or activity offered by Washington County. An accommodation/modification will be provided if it does not impose an undue financial or administrative burden or fundamentally alter the nature of the program, service or activity.

Procedure

An oral or written request for accommodation/modification shall be submitted to the ADA Coordinator for the department providing the program, service or activity. The request should contain a description of the accommodation or modification being requested.

The department ADA Coordinator will acknowledge the request within ten days.

The request will be reported to the Washington County ADA Coordinator.

If accommodation/modification is not an undue financial or administrative burden or does not alter the nature of the program, service or activity, the accommodation/modification will be arranged within 60 days by the department.

If accommodation/modification would cause an undue financial or administrative burden to the County or would fundamentally alter the nature of the program, service or activity, the department ADA Coordinator will consult with the Washington County ADA County Coordinator regarding appropriate action and response.

If no reasonable accommodation or modification is available, or would cause undue financial or administrative burden to the County, or would fundamentally alter the nature of the program, service or activity or if the accommodation would take more than 60 days to arrange, the department ADA Coordinator will send a written response to the requester. The requester will be informed of his/her appeal rights pursuant to the Washington County ADA Grievance Procedure.

The action or other responses will be reported to the Washington County ADA Coordinator, who will maintain a record of all requests and action taken.
