

“I am the Assistant Human Resources Manager and joined the County in March 2015. I have 22 years of Human Resources experience spanning two decades of public service. My passion is linking candidates with meaningful public sector work that is why leading the Talent Acquisition Team is one of the most gratifying parts of my job. “Create a Career” not only sums up the primary focus of Washington County’s Talent Acquisition Team, but is a personal mandate.” -Robbie Berg

“I’m an Oregonian, through and through. After moving away for a few years, the Oregon rain brought me back and I’m here to stay! I’m excited to join Washington County and work with an outstanding team of individuals to help attract talented people to join our organization!” -Nicole Stewart

“I like GATORADE and SPORTS! If I could I would go to school for the rest of my life as I truly love learning. I like listening to music all the time! My favorite actor of all time is Denzel Washington. I am one of the last true Buffalo Bills fans. I love coaching basketball (girls or boys doesn’t matter). I have 3 great kids Paris, Riana and Tony. I love taking them to the movies and spending time with them. I can’t think of anything else because my life is an open book. I love watching, playing and coaching sports. Love traveling to warm places (not cold ones) and I really like learning about other cultures (I’m from NYJ).” –Tony Jenkins

“I was born and raised in Lima, Peru and upon graduating high school I decided to move with my mom in search of better opportunities. I am currently attending PSU and will complete my BA in Human Resources Management by summer 2018. I have been working in the human resources field since 2008. I am excited to work for Washington County because I want to make an impact in our community. Whenever I have free time, I love taking pictures and working in Photoshop. I also enjoy going out for long hikes with my best friends and getting to see more of the PNW.” –Lorena Coussens

“I am a native Oregonian who loves to travel! Lived in the Bay Area for 8 years and have two kids and a cute westie! I’ve worked for the County for 8 years and worked specifically in HR as a Talent Acquisition Business Partner for the past 2 years. I love what I do by bringing in new talent and providing excellent service!”

–Rebecca Tabra

“I am a Washington County native, born and raised in Hillsboro. I love to explore the Pacific Northwest and also travel beyond our state borders. I have a beautiful daughter who I love to dance, sing, and be silly with. I graduated from Portland State University with a Bachelor of Arts in Human Resources Management. I have a heart for people and truly enjoy helping people succeed. I am passionate about bringing the best talent to serve and be reflective of the community of Washington County.”
