Ray Cameron New Juvenile Services Department Director

Budget Update

The budget has been created and no jobs were lost.

Update BSC- Breakthrough Series Collaborative

The collaborative participates in learning sessions. The first 2 of these were done in Washington, DC. The next one is happening on May 10th and 11th and will be held in Beaverton, Or.

Juvenile Crime Prevention Plan Presentation

Jennifer Cearley- PowerPoint presentation see attached. Jennifer let the group know the data currently available is a bit antiquated and does not allow for youth to pick more than one race, instead, youth must pick the race they most identify with. There is work currently being done to update this.

JCPAC members provided updates on the programs contracted with the Juvenile Department.

Kamille Irwin-Cordero- POIC program- POIC has culturally specific schools focusing on prosocial activities, skill-building groups, family groups, and fun nights. The program is based on the needs of the youth.

Ana Medina- Latino Network- 16 youth participated in the Latino Network Spring Break event with positive activities for youth. The field trip to Bullwinkle's allowed the kids to be in a relaxed place and connect positively. Latino Network is currently making plans for a summer event.

Jessica Pierce- Beaverton School District- shared appreciation for a focus on middle school youth- "We've seen similar patterns in schools. There was a recent article about the racist discipline gap in the Beaverton School District: https://www.beavertonvalleytimes.com/news/local/beaverton-suspends-expels-black-and-latino-students-at-higher-rates/article e7bca840-c9aa-11ed-8209-27fe8de3ebf6.html"

Questions-

What will be done with the program coordinator position for drug court? Now with Ray on board, we will be looking at that position and putting a plan in place.

Is the department fully staffed with Juvenile Counselors? No, we have several open positions.

Roundtable

Katie Riley- Washington County Kids

Senate Bill 858 (Authorizes the formation of children's service districts) is still in Senate Committee.

Senate Bill 531 (Relating to funding for programs offered during non-school hours; declaring an emergency.) is also still in Senate Committee. There likely will not be any information until after May 17th when a prediction has been made about how much money is available to fund programs. Likely, funds will not be seen until sometime in July.

Washington County Kids is working on a Youth development division. This project would train late-stage teens as childcare providers. The funding issue is putting a hold on some of this work since summer will be nearly over before funds are received to run a program like this.

Provider training program April 21st from 10am to 12. Scan QR code to enroll, see attached flyer.

Bria Woodworker-Schmid – Domestic Violence Resource Center

Happy to report the annual round of coping with conflict was successfully completed. DVRC is looking forward to starting the next round.

Meeting end time- 3:37pm
