Case #14-503069

Detectives Search for Human Trafficking Victim

April 26, 2014—Washington County Sheriff's Office Detectives are searching for a frequent runaway juvenile female that is possibly engaging in dangerous activities including being victimized by human trafficking.

Sheriff's Detectives are asking for the public's help to locate Adrian Brown, 15, from the community of Aloha. It is believed that she is engaging in dangerous self-destructive behavior. Detectives believe Adrian may be in the company of an unidentified man that is at least twice her age who may be encouraging her to engage in illegal activity. Adrian has been missing since March 2014 and is believed to be in the Vancouver or Portland area.

Her guardian is especially concerned because Adrian has not been missing this length of time before with no contact. Adrian is five foot seven inches tall, 135 pounds, with blue eyes and dyed reddish-brown hair. She has multiple tattoos including a depiction of herself tattooed on her upper right arm. She is also known to wear a red bandanna on her forehead.

There is a recent photo of Adrian Brown attached.

The Washington County Sheriff's Office is working in cooperation with the Vancouver, Washington Police Department, the FBI and the National Center for Missing and Endangered Children to bring Adrian safely home.

Detectives are seeking the public's help regarding this case. If you have any information, please call Detective Jeffrey Boivin at (503) 846-2590 or the Washington County Sheriff's Office at (503) 629-0111.
