Public's Help Needed to Locate Missing Endangered Woman

November 1, 2018

On Monday, October 15, 2018, a concerned family member contacted the Washington County Sheriff's Office regarding a relative who had not been seen for about a month. Detectives were assigned to investigate and are asking for the public's help to locate her.

The missing person is being identified as 36-year-old Roxanne Slayton. She suffers from medical issues and is not believed to have access to her critical medications.

Ms. Slayton is 5'6" tall and weighs approximately 180 lbs. She has black hair and brown eyes.

Her last known address was at the Riverwood Heights Apartments, located at 12070 Southwest Fischer Road, near King City. She also has ties to King County, Washington.

Detectives would like to hear from anyone who has seen or talked to Ms. Slayton in the past month. Anyone with information is asked to contact the Washington County Sheriff's Office at (503) 846-2700.
