Detectives Need the Public's Help with Missing Person Cold Case

October 17, 2019

The Washington County Sheriff's Office is asking for the public's help with a missing person cold case.

Tomorrow marks three years since 69-year-old Dane Davis was last seen by anyone. Mr. Davis' wife, Zarita Davis, and brother, Shawn Davis, have actively worked with detectives from the Violent Crimes Unit to help bring him home.

Mr. Davis was last seen on October 18, 2016, outside his residence in the 21500 block of SW Jay Street in Aloha. He is approximately 5'6" tall and weighs about 180 lbs. He has a small scar on the right side of his head and another small scar on his right knee.

Prior to his disappearance, Mr. Davis became increasingly unable to care for himself. His family was working with a local non-profit agency to locate a secure facility for him. It was during this brief window of time that Mr. Davis went missing.

Mr. Davis retired from Wells Fargo. He enjoyed walking and would frequently walk to the Hillsboro Promenade shopping center, visiting both the Wendy's restaurant at 7530 W Baseline Road, as well as the Albertson's store at 7500 SW Baseline Road.

Anyone who has had contact with Mr. Davis since October 18, 2016 or has any information on this investigation is asked to contact Detective Robert Rookhuyzen at 503-846-2673.
